

Simply secure your boxed merchandise with cutting edge technology.

The EdgeTag is the only security tag on the market that combines the ability to securely seal and protect your boxed merchandise all in one solution. Its versatility and low profile makes it extremely easy to protect packages of all sizes, including strapped merchandise with six different Sled options. The EdgeTag alarms when the tag is pulled away from the merchandise. As an added measure, a clear, thin conductive tape can be applied to create a barrier around the merchandise which cannot be broken without causing an alarm.
